Hospitals and healthcare providers play a crucial role in promoting, providing and educating patients about preventive services and screenings and maintaining the health of their communities. Many diseases are preventable through immunizations, screenings, treatment, and lifestyle changes. The information below shows how well the hospitals you selected are providing preventive services.

Measure	Jackson Health System	Florida Avg.	National Avg.	More Info
Maternity Practices in Infant Nutrition and Care	86 %	81 %	81 %	Higher is Better 5 % Higher than Florida average. 5 % Higher than National average. Date Range: 2020
Immediate Postpartum Care	93 %	79%	83 %	Higher is Better 14 % Higher than Florida average. 10 % Higher than National average. Date Range: 2020
Rooming-In	67%	82%	76 %	Higher is Better 15 % Lower than Florida average. 9 % Lower than National average. Date Range: 2020
Feeding Practices	77%	81%	82 %	Higher is Better 4 % Lower than Florida average. 5 % Lower than National average. Date Range: 2020
Feeding Education	100 %	92 %	93 %	Higher is Better 8 % Higher than Florida average. 7 % Higher than National average. Date Range: 2020
Discharge Support	100 %	79 %	79%	Higher is Better 21 % Higher than Florida average. 21 % Higher than National average. Date Range: 2020
Institutional Management	78%	75%	71 %	Higher is Better 3 % Higher than Florida average. 7 % Higher than National average. Date Range: 2020

